Active Duty Military: If military spaces are available, members of US active duty military who are on orders to Maryland may submit application as Military Member. Military Members will pay dues at same rate as Regular Member's but are not subject to initiation fees. They may not sponsor Associate or Dependent members. A member may not be a Military Member for more than four years without transitioning to a Regular Membership.

Associate Member: A member may add his/her spouse as an associate member by paying the associate annual membership fee (dues) and initiation fee. An associate member is entitled to enjoy all of the privileges and benefits offered by this club, except for voting.

Dependent Members: A member may add his/her minor dependents to the membership by paying the dependent member fee and initiation fee. A Dependent Member can only be on club grounds when accompanied by his/her sponsoring Regular Member, or as a guest.
