

Sanner's Lake Woodstock Match Report – March 2018

A breezy but not too chilly afternoon brought out a surplus of shooters eager to blow the cobwebs out of their vintage warhorses at the first Woodstock match of the year at Sanner's Lake. A variety of rifles populated the benches ranging from the usual Garands to a less-usual SMLE, Schmidt-Rubin and Argentine Mauser. There was even a pair of M1 Carbines ready to take on the big boys. As it turned out, the big guns took the top spots, with Mark Swierczek's Garand taking the high combined and high individual scores. Paul Stephens was hot on his heels with his '03 Mark 1 Springfield, coming in second place combined while Ron Ferguson and his Garand took third place in both the individual and combined scores. All of the vintage rifles performed well, although Greg Ashley's SMLE took a few rounds to find the paper, with classic Woodstock patience and persistence he was able to get on target by the last relay! Thanks to everyone for coming out and filling the benches making the inaugural Woodstock match of 2018 a success and showing that the old guns can still put rounds in the X-ring!
