Match Report

We had a good morning to shoot and a good turnout. The usual suspects were here plus Wolf Bock came out of hibernation and we had a new shooter, non-member Bob McGill, who had a good time shooting with us. We hope to see him on a regular basis.

We gave the new prone shooting platforms a whirl and they worked just fine. We shot the standing stage on the concrete of course, then used the platforms for the rest of the stages. They were cumbersome to move being heavy as is needed for stability, but we had no difficulties at all adapting to them. They are certainly stable enough for any competitions the club holds.

The service rifles outshot the match rifles this month, mainly because the two match rifle shooters cross fired on each other and it cost them dearly. Yours truly had the highest score for the day beating Jake Swierczek by 5 points, but anyone who can shoot the old reliable M1 Garand like Jake can has my respect as the better rifleman. I'll enjoy this matches results but know I will be a target at the next match.

Many thanks to the competitors for their help in setting up the range and getting everything back in order after the match. And a special thanks to Mark Swierczek for running the second relay again, allowing me to shoot, and to Jake Swierczek who suggested a better way for us to shoot the standing stage which worked well and was a lot less work.

Our next high power rifle match will be the Vintage Military Rifle match July 23rd. Details on the match will be forthcoming . I encourage you vintage rifle owners to come to the Woodstock match on the 21st of July. You can get a good zero off the bench at that match, fine tune the sights during the Vintage Rifle Match sight in period and be ready to do some serious rifle shooting with an old rifle that has paid its dues and wants to be shot again. We have shooting mats and spotting scopes (although the scopes aren't the best) you may use if you don't have your own.

I urge you to give our high power matches a try. Good competition, good company and a good time to be had by all.
